- Employees should not abuse their employment benefits. This can refer to time off, insurance, facilities, subscriptions or other benefits that the company offers.

4. Conflicts of Interest

While guard.me has no wish to interfere in any personnel's outside activities, guard.me prohibits conflicts of interest.

4.1 Holding a Significant Interest in Suppliers, Customers or Competitors guard.me's policies require that personnel and their immediate family not have any ownership interests in, or own property with, any of guard.me's vendors, suppliers, contractors, agencies, customers, or competitors (or their office employees) unless guard.me determines that such ownership interests do not conflict with the personnel's obligations to guard.me. These restrictions do not apply to ownership of stock of a public company.

4.2 Outside Work

guard.me requires that personnel not work for or conduct any outside business with a competitor. Personnel may not be engaged in any manner by a competitor of guard.me.

4.3 Conduct with Customers and Vendors - Gifts and Gratuities

To ensure the highest level of objectivity in dealing with guard.me's vendors, suppliers, contractors and agencies, and to avoid the appearance of impropriety, personnel and their immediate family are not permitted to accept personal benefits, solicited or unsolicited, of any kind. This includes free services, discounts, loans, entertainment or other special favors. Infrequent gifts valuing not more than $100 may be accepted when they have not been solicited and are not being made in return for a special consideration or decision.

4.4 Conduct of Personnel Involved in the Purchasing Process - Unlawful Use of Company Funds

Personnel may not use corporate assets or funds for any unlawful or improper purpose. guard.me International Insurance does not authorize and will not condone any payment by any personnel that is a bribe, kickback, or disclosed commission or a commission more than those required in the ordinary course of business to a third party for obtaining any business or otherwise bestowing a special favour on guard.me International Insurance or its personnel. Gifts or payments may not be offered or given to foreign officials, political parties or candidates.

While certain nominal payments or gifts to administrative personnel, who do not exercise discretionary authority, may be customary, any such payments or gifts must be disclosed to senior management in advance to ensure that they are appropriate. Records of any such payment or gift must also be maintained.

5.0 Reporting Violations

Personnel may report any violation of this Corporate Ethics Policy to our Confidential Reporting Hotline, at 1-833-214-7240 or www.lighthouse-services.com/guard.me. These reports may be made anonymously and the reporter's personal details will not be collected or disclosed without explicit consent.

6.0 Enforcement

Any employee found to have violated this policy may be subject to disciplinary action in line with the Disciplinary Policy.
